

LITERATURE CLUB

PROGRAM TERM 2

Scotch Library

FRIDAY 15TH
APRIL

Welcome Back to Term 2 Share your best books from your holiday break with prizes for the best recommendation. Plus we'll be re-launching Lit Club's most successful project ever- The Two Booksmen. Choose your partner and choose your book and get reading!!! It's also time to think about a new BOOK CLUB- one where we all read the same book and discuss it the first day back in Term 3. Please submit ideas for a suitable book.

FRIDAY 22ND
APRIL

Fractured Fairy Tales The Brothers Grimm aren't the only ones who can come up with fantastical fairy stories! Today you'll create your own twisted and warped or politically correct fairy tales to entertain and amuse. Grab a pen and go crazy!

FRIDAY 29TH
APRIL

20 things to do with a wet piece of spaghetti

Do you have an imagination that is expansive, quirky or just plain strange? Then you will excel at this activity which asks you to think outside the box and put your wildest ideas centre stage. Curious? Come to Lit Club today and all will be revealed.

FRIDAY 6TH
MAY

Who's Line is it anyway? Let the Leadership team lead us down a path of intrigue and suspense with today's activity designed to test our novel knowledge.

FRIDAY 13TH
MAY

Captains Choice Let's see if our esteemed Captain can fight off the curse of Friday the 13th... What will he come up with?? Only time will tell.

FRIDAY 20TH
MAY

Decision DAY Today we'll vote on our Book Club Book choice for term three from your range of suggestions. We'll also throw in a mid-term mini-trivia comp to get your brains in action.

FRIDAY 27TH
